

PERFORMING ARTS

1 on 1 lessons to learn all things singing,
acting & music with Miss Sammie
at danceworks 114

MORE THAN JUST A DANCE STUDIO

PERFORMING ARTS LESSONS IN 2024

At Danceworks 114 we are lucky enough to have our very own Performing Arts Teacher Miss Sammie who, although is DW born and raised, has an exciting background in all things Performing. She decided to pursue her passion for theatre and uprooted her life to Ballarat in 2013 studying Musical Theatre at the Ballarat Academy of Performing Arts (BAPA).

After completing her Bachelors of Arts (Musical Theatre) Sammie is now back in the valley sharing her love for all things performing & teaching. In 2023 she took on the role as Performing Arts teacher not only at Danceworks 114 but a local primary school as well. Over the years Miss Sammie has been involved in many productions, including the lead as Sandy in "Grease" as well as community events such as Traralgon Christmas Carols showing off her vocal skills.

We have an exciting opportunity for up to 8 budding young performers to take one-on-one lessons with Miss Sammie on a weekly basis. The 30min lessons would cover singing, acting & music reading skills.

As places are limited, we can offer these lessons in two rounds.

Round #1

- dancers participating in Song & Dance solos
- kids/young adults who are actively involved in local / school productions and looking to improve their skills.

Round #2

- Singing lessons only

If spots aren't filled with round 1 participants we can start selecting from round 2.

Lessons are charged in line with our Private Lesson Fee of $55.00 an hour for a Senior Teacher.

Lessons will take place on a Thursday afternoon/evening for 30 minutes

As we do not have an online form for this, please email danceworks114@hotmail.com to express your interest.

Take the chance unlock your full artist potential!
