Commitment

- Minimum 1 x scheduled private lesson every week
- Attend a compulsory weekly 60min Performance Team Tech class (replacing workshop format from 2024)
- 80% attendance to private lessons every term
- Enter minimum of 2 out of the 5 major eisteddfods for the season
- Complete weekly tasks given to dancers by their teacher in their homework book (provided by DW114)

Responsibility

Performance Team members and their families are responsible for entering competitions & sourcing costumes. This will all be clearly outlined & guided by us, so please don't stress about it! Practicing is a must. The best way to encourage your dancer to practice is by asking them to show you what they've been working on. All families must download the BAND app and join our Team.

Eisteddfods Eligible for entering

(please be advised this is guide only and are subject to change)

- Sale Eisteddfod - first week of the April school holidays
- Yarram Eisteddfod - Middle of May
- Bairnsdale Eisteddfod - towards the end of Term 2
- Morwell Eisteddfod - first week of the June/July school holidays
- Leongatha Eisteddfod - around first weekend in August
- Traralgon Eisteddfod - first week of the September school holidays

 We understand that holiday eisteddfod's aren't ideal for all families, therefore we highly recommend entering Bairnsdale & Leongatha as your two selections for those dancers

Team members do not have permission to enter any Eisteddfods other than those listed above without the approval of the Director.

EISTEDDFOD VOLUNTEER SHIFTS

- As part of our 2025 Agreement, each parent must commit to a minimum of one shift for weekend competitions & two shifts for holiday competitions when entered.

Championships

For a dancer to learn & perform a championship dance in any style they have to have placed 1st, 2nd or 3rd in their open section at a recent eisteddfod to qualify.

Qualifying Eisteddfods include the following only:

Moe, Morwell, Bairnsdale, Leongatha & Traralgon Dance Festivals.

If your dancer takes on Championships please keep in mind some eisteddfods have requirements for the parents to participate as a committee member or minimum shifts need to be covered throughout the eisteddfod, by you.

Example:

- Morwell Eisteddfod: You need to be an active committee member and complete a minimum number of volunteer shifts for child to enter Championships

2025 Pricing

$60.00 per hour for a Senior Teacher, or $40.00 per hour for a Junior Teacher.

Compulsory PT Tech class - $50.00 per term flat rate

Choreography only lessons

If your selected teacher does not teach for example, Hip Hop, but your dancer is enrolled into a Hip Hop class and would like to learn a Hip Hop routine, we now have the option of organising choreography sessions with an alternate teacher.

This is to save you the time & cost of a second lesson every week, but also allows the dancer to touch on all their favourite styles.

Choreography sessions are 4 x 30min sessions - $150 flat rate

Performance Team dancers will receive 1 x complimentary Team 114 2025 T-shirt and have the opportunity to purchase an exclusive Team 114 Jacket to wear to eisteddfods.

NEW IN 2025 - DANCEWORKS 114 COMMUNITY TEAM!

All Performance Team dancers will learn a routine as a group to be performed across various community events throughout the year. We often get approached by local/Gippsland based sporting teams, businesses and community events for our involvement and I would love to be able to say “Yes! We have team specifically for this” All performances wouldn’t be compulsory however highly encouraged.

PARENTS SOCIAL CLUB - More information to come, watch this space.

The entire teaching team are excited to unlock your dancers potential this next competition season & watch their confidence grow as they take the stage!
